Occupational Health Nurses Association of Ireland

The Occupational Health Nurse Association of Ireland

Invite you to attend an

“Occupational Health Nurses Global Networking Event”

The Committee and members of the OHNAI are delighted to host a unique global networking event among international colleagues and leaders within Occupational Health Nursing, during the Dublin ICOH Congress 2018.

Date: Tuesday 1st May 2018

Time: 18.00hrs

Venue: Dublin Convention Centre Spencer Dock

This is a fantastic opportunity to collaborate with frontline specialists in the field of Occupational Health Nursing and share first hand experiences of evidence based best practice at an international level.

Delegates will include:

- Representatives from the International Commission of Occupational Health (ICOH),
- Representatives from The Scientific Committee of Occupational Health Nursing (SCOHN), including Chair Ms. Susan Randolph,
- Representatives from the Federation of Occupational Health Nursing of the European Union (FOHNEU) including President Dr. Henriett Hirdi,
- Members of the INMO Occupational Health Nurse Committee.
- UK RCN Public Health Forum.
- The UK Occupational Health Nurse Forum.

Attendance is free and we welcome all Occupational Health Nurses
